

Terry Lee

If you know someone named "Terry Lee" born in the Pittsburgh area during the 60's or 70's, then it's a very good chance their parent were fans of DJ Terry Lee Trunzo and his "TL Sound."

DJ'ing as a teen at dances he began his radio career at WMCK/WIXZ -AM at age 21. Running from 6:30 to midnight, his popular program was a mixture of R&B, soul and doo-wop. But, it was the love ballads he played to wind down the show that won listeners, and was the beginning of his program, "Music for Young Lovers."

His influence helped many records become hits. He also produced and managed local bands, The Fantastic DeeJays and The Swamp Rats.

He hosted a hugely successful reunion show at the Palisades in McKeesport in 2010, before his untimely death in 2013.
